

Head of Hiking and Outdoor Living– Mt. Desert Island (near Bar Harbor), Maine

Camp Beech Cliff welcomes qualified applicants for the Head of Outdoor Living for our summer day camp season of 2008. This instructor plans creative activities and experiential lessons to help every camper enjoy, appreciate, and learn about survival skills and camp crafts including orienteering, first aid, fire building, etc. The Head of Hiking and Outdoor Skills must also adhere to all of the health and safety laws set forth by the State of Maine Dept of Human Services Youth Camps Division, and standards for accreditation with the American Camping Association.

Requirements – At least 18 years old, have wilderness first aid certification, and have one year's experience leading activities with children. Must enjoy working with children of all backgrounds, and passionate about working outdoors and engaging campers ages 7 – 12 in hiking and outdoor living studies. Must have the ability to plan a wide range of nature activities and programs throughout the summer.

Preferred Qualifications – Bachelor's degree and at least two years of direct experience in leading outdoor living programs for kids. If no degree, equivalent work experience required.

Salary depends on level of experience ($300 - $450 per week) plus limited housing available. Contact Tim Spinney at campdirector@campbeechcliff.org and visit our website www.campbeechcliff.org for application and gen'l information.
